VOLUME CVII.-NO. 298. ALEXANDRIA, VA., WEDNESDAY EVENING, DECEMBER 12, 1906. PRICE 2 CENTS.

Nature's Way Is Best.

The function strengthening and tissue building plan of treating chronic, lingering and obstinate cases of disease as pursued by Dr. Pierce, is following after Nature's plan of restoring health. His use of natural remedies, that is extracts from native medicinal roots, prepared by processes wrought out by the expenditure of much time and money, without the use of alcohol, and by skillful combination in just the right proportions.

Used as ingredients of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, Black Cherry-bark, Queen's root, Golden Seal root, Bloodroot and Sassafras, specially exert their influence in cases of lung, bronchial and throat troubles, and this "Discovery" is, therefore, a sovereign remedy for bronchitis, laryngitis, chronic cough, catarrh and kindred ailments.

The above native roots also have the strongest possible endorsement from the leading medical writers, of all the several schools of practice, for the cure not only of the diseases named above but also for indigestion, torpor of liver, or biliousness, obstinate constipation, kidney and bladder troubles and catarrh, no matter where located.

You don't have to take Dr. Pierce's say-so alone as to this; what his claims for his "Discovery" is backed up by the writings of the most eminent men in the medical profession. A request by postal card or letter, addressed to Dr. E. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., for a little book of extracts from eminent medical authorities endorsing the ingredients of his medicines, will bring a little book free that is worthy of your attention if needing a good, safe, reliable remedy of known composition for the cure of almost any ailment, or lingering malady.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. One little "Pellet" is a gentle laxative, and two a mild cathartic.

The most valuable book for both men and women is Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. A splendid large-volume, with engravings and colored plates. A copy, paper-covered, will be sent to anyone sending 21 cents in one-cent stamps, to pay the cost of mailing only, to Dr. E. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. Cloth-bound, 31 stamps.

MRS. BIRDSONG FOUND GUILTY

"Guilty of manslaughter, but we, the jury, recommend the prisoner to the mercy of the court."

These words, spoken in a slow, halting, but very solemn manner, in the dingy old courtroom at Hazlehurst, Miss., yesterday evening just as the shades of night were falling, sounded the doom of Mrs. Birdsong, who killed her family physician, Dr. Butler, when he boasted about his intimacy with her, and came as an overwhelming surprise to all who had closely followed the trial.

When the case was given to the jury the hopes of the defense were that a speedy verdict of acquittal would be rendered. Then as the hours sped on and from the juryroom came the report that the jury stood 11 for acquittal and 1 for conviction, the young woman prisoner was reassured by her attorneys and friends that this one would be won over and she would be set free. And so through the long hours of yesterday Mrs. Birdsong awaited the verdict, confident that it would be in her favor. But it was not to be.

When the jury filed into the courtroom last night it was plain from the hard set faces of the veniremen that they had not been swayed by sympathy or by the sex of the accused. Mrs. Birdsong, flanked by her faithful maid, scanned the faces of the jury as she waited for the judge to give them the authority to announce their verdict, but she saw little to reassure her there, and she was in a semi-hysterical condition when the jury was asked if it had arrived at a final conclusion as to her guilt or innocence.

As the words were finally spoken that doomed her to a prison cell Mrs. Birdsong rose to her feet, scanned the jury as for an instant, and with one loud cry like the wail of a lost soul she sank back in her seat crying and sobbing as if her heart would break.

So violent did Mrs. Birdsong become that it was necessary to restrain her. Her little baby was clasped close to her breast, and when a deputy approached to take the child away it sobbed:

"Mamma, don't let him have me."

Every heart in the crowded courtroom was melted, and many were crying as Mrs. Birdsong was led away. She was carried to her hotel, where two deputies will guard her until today. At that time proceedings will at once be instituted for an appeal.

GILLETTE'S MOTHER.

Since going to Herkimer, N. Y., from Danvers to aid her son and write for a newspaper syndicate the story of his being sentenced to death, Mrs. Louise M. Gillette has found time to try to reform the people of Herkimer.

Not content with praying for her son in his cell and the next moment urging him to confess all, Mrs. Gillette goes out into the street and fills the role of a reformer, now calling on an intoxicated man to shun the cup and now trying to urge a respectable citizen not to neglect the spiritual side of his life.

Since her arrival in Herkimer Mrs. Gillette has displayed amazing versatility by visiting her convicted son in his cell as a mother and praying for him for his salvation; visiting her son as a newspaper representative and sending an interview with him over the wire for publication; covering the court proceedings as a news writer, bulletining the news of her son's death sentence to the newspapers; sitting for her photograph, catching up her correspondence by writing many letters; starting for Utica to join the Salvation Army; preaching to intoxicated men in the streets and urging them to send their children to church.

She took a Salvation Army captain into her son's cell and he became so demonstrative in urging her to kneel and seek forgiveness for his sins that Gillette requested one of his keepers to oust the uniformed Salvationist.

His mother's plea for time to talk with her boy has saved Gillette from at least one day in the deathhouse at Auburn prison. It had been planned to remove Gillette from the county jail at Herkimer, but the sheriff finally consented to postpone the transfer until today. The exact time at which Gillette will be taken to Auburn prison will not be disclosed, as the officers wish to avoid the crowds which they fear would collect at points along the route if the time of departure from Herkimer were known in advance.

INSURANCE MAN CONVICTED.

The first conviction of a high official of an insurance company for misuse of policyholders' funds took place late yesterday afternoon, when a trial jury in the criminal branch of the Supreme court in New York found George Burnham, jr., vice president and general counsel of the Mutual Reserve Life Insurance Company, guilty of grand larceny. As a result Burnham, who has been a leader in insurance circles in New York, is occupying a cell in the Tombs prison, where never follows an injury dressed with Buckle's Arnica Salve. Its antiseptic and healing properties prevent blood poisoning. Chas. (owner, merchant, of Bensenville, N. Y.) writes: "I cured Seth Burch, of this place, the ugliest sore on his neck. I ever saw. Cures Cuts, Wounds, Burns and Scalds. 25c at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store."

Death From Lockjaw

Catarrh

To prove unquestionably, and beyond any doubt, that Catarrh of the nose and throat can be cured, I am furnishing patients through druggists, small trial boxes of Dr. Shoop's Catarrh Cure. I do this because I am so certain, that Dr. Shoop's Catarrh Cure will bring actual substantial relief. Nothing certainly, is so convincing as a physical test of any artificial real, genuine merit. But this article must possess two merits, else the test will be useless, rather than adverse. Dr. Shoop's Catarrh Cure is a snow white, healing antiseptic balm, put up in beautiful nickel capped glass jars at 25c. Each coating agent as Oil Eucalyptus, Thymol, Menthol, etc., are incorporated into a velvety cream like Petroleum, imported by Dr. Shoop from Europe. If Catarrh of the nose and throat has extended to the stomach, then by all means also use internally, Dr. Shoop's Restorative stomach dressing, a kind of general strength, blood, healing, biliousness, bad taste, etc. surely call for Dr. Shoop's Restorative.

For uncomplicated catarrh only of the nose and throat, nothing else, however, need be used but he must remain until Thursday, when Justice Greenbaum will impose sentence which cannot be less than 1, nor more than 10 years in prison.

Dr. Shoop's Catarrh Cure

Burnham, a tall, handsome man, approaching his sixtieth year, turned deathly pale when the jury announced its verdict. He did not utter a word, but sank into his seat completely unheeded, his fingers clucking aimlessly at his grey side whiskers. His chief counsel served notice that he would appeal.

A deputy then led Burnham across the "bridge of sighs" to the prison. He broke down and wept bitterly while being searched and having his pedigree taken prior to being locked up in a cell.

Burnham was convicted of larceny of $7,500. The prosecution and conviction of Burnham was an outgrowth of the investigation of insurance companies in New York by a legislative committee a year ago. The other officers of the insurance company, Frederick A. Burnham, president, and George D. Elbridge, vice president were indicted at the same time as the man who was convicted yesterday. Five indictments were returned against each of the defendants.

The charge against George Burnham, jr., is that in 1901 he paid J. Douglas Wells with company funds for a loan alleged to have been made to Frederick A. Burnham, the president, and that the payment was concealed by false entries in the books of the insurance company.

Rocketeer's "Earnings."

New York, Dec. 12.—John D. Rockefeller will make the tidy little sum of $60,000,000 this year, according to the two men who know more about the oil king's finances than any other two in the world. Henry H. Rogers and John D. Archbold were talking with a financier yesterday, and it leaked out today that they had agreed that Rockefeller's "earnings" this year will reach sixty millions. His daily income, therefore, is $166,666.66. Reducing it still further each hour of the twenty-four he is accumulating $6,944.44, or $114 a minute.
